Creative Stallions Showcase at the

FIRST FRIDAY

ART SHOW

Hosted by the Madera Coalition for Community Justice

Friday, May 4th some of some creative Stallions showcased their work at the Madera Coalition for Community Justice First Friday Art Show. Madera south High School students along with students from Desmond Middle School did a great job presenting their work to the local community. There were paintings, drawings, and ceramics on display as well as live art. The First Friday event was very family friendly by having craft tables for the kids, folklorico dancers, and students dropping rhymes on the microphone.
